November 20, 2009: Special King's Fair Edition!

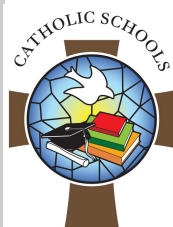

"Fides et Ratio"

A National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence

One of America's Top 50 Catholic High Schools

OUR MISSION

At The Atonement Academy we strive for excellence in the physical, the intellectual, and the spiritual virtues through a challenging course of classical and Catholic education.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! King's Fair Saturday!

Attention all lords and ladies! Don't miss our annual medieval King's Fair on Saturday, November 21st.

Dress up as a peasant or royalty — or just come as you are— but be sure to join us for Holy Mass at ten, a costume parade at eleven, and then stay for dozens of games, food, and fun for the whole family!

There will be raffles, prizes, medieval-themed cake and costume contests, and a professional jousting tournament. Learn to fence and juggle, take a ride on the zip line, and even have your friends put in debtor's prison! Admission is free.

Keep selling those raffle tickets (Who can't use $1,000 in gift cards to the store of their choice!) Prizes await the lucky sellers and their families, too!

Costume Contests: Prize for Lower School-Gift Card
Prize for Middle School- Gift Card
Prize for High School- Gift Card
Over All Best Costume---Prize is 4 hours of House Cleaning.

Nota Bene — Note Well:

- The Cake Decorating Contest is one of the fair's most creative competitions. We'll have categories for youth plus adult groups to compete for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prize ribbons in the following categories: Medieval, Holiday, and "other". Drop off decorated cakes before judging starts at 11:30 in St. Anthony's Hall. Prizes announced at 12:00. All cakes become property of the King's Fair Cake Walk.
- Food and Game Booths open at 11:00 am and continue until they are sold out (or 4 pm).
- FREE PLAY! Upper Scholars will present a repeat performance of the comedy they presented at the recent PSIA One-Act Play Competition: Ralph Roister Doister, at 4:30 pm in St. Anthony Hall on Saturday afternoon.
